PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

The Highlands at Castle Bay is a unique community built around the area's only true Scottish-links style golf course. Opened in 1999, The Highlands at Castle Bay offers prestigious low-maintenance brick homes with granite countertops, hardwood floors, stainless steel appliances, and ceramic tile baths, along with lovely views over the golf course and natural areas. The serene setting offers scenic vistas, massive wooden arch-trestles and an abundance of wild birds.

The Highlands at Castle Bay is nestled on acres of rolling hills just north of Wilmington, NC, in the cozy city of Hampstead, NC. The Highlands at Castle Bay is a highlight of Hampstead, NC, real estate and provides excellent value, lifestyle, and amenities very close to the urban hub of Southeastern North Carolina, Wilmington, NC.

The Highlands at Castle Bay is located just north of Wilmington, North Carolina, in the cozy city of Hampstead, North Carolina. Legend has it that Hampstead received its name in a most peculiar way. As the story goes, George Washington planned to spend the night in the area and to enjoy eating mullet – a well-regarded local fish – caught from Topsail Sound. To his dismay, mullet had not yet come into season, so his feast was "ham instead," providing a name that stuck in the little community.

Hampstead, NC, real estate features both historic and modern homes. Buyers who want a smart investment in Hampstead, NC real estate, should choose The Highlands at Castle Bay, a wonderful blend of modern homes, a great Scottish-links style golf course, and a city rooted in American history.
